Property Management Committee - Mr. Sager

- Property Management Report

Mr. Sager took the lead in initiating a discussion centered around the Property Management Report. Mr. Sager brought up his concerns in regards to warning citations and where we are with our progress on the sanitation signage project. Mr. Sager also conveyed some questions regarding the DEEP EV Grant that was awarded to the City and requested information regarding its scope and timeline.

Ms. Turlo gave a brief overview of the current progress of the sanitation signage project along with some of the constraints. She also went through a few items that pertained to the EV Grant and will be going back to the contact at DEEP for more clarification and a project timeline to bring back to the Board for our next meeting.
